

JRHI – Lesson: Lazarus

Date: Wednesday, September 23, 2020

Read: John 11:1-44

Seven Things:

1. Reread verse 4. What did Jesus tell his disciples when he got the news about their friend, Lazarus, being sick?

2. Reread verse 8. What was the disciples concern about traveling to see Lazarus, Mary and Martha?

3. What did Jesus tell his disciples had happened to Lazarus?

4. Reread verse 23. What did Jesus tell Martha about Lazarus?

5. Reread verse 32. How did Mary blame Jesus in verse?

6. Why was Jesus angry at all the people weeping? What had he already taught them (see Matthew 6:33)?

7. What did Jesus do with Lazarus and why? (See verse 15)

Explore: (focus verse) John 11:42 Father, thank you for always _____ me, but I said it out loud for the _____ of all these _____ standing here, so that they will _____ you sent me.

Express: (write facts from the verse in your journal or on the back)

Jesus never performs a miracle to show off. He is the Son of God whether he performs a miracle or not. Every time Jesus performs a _____ it is so that the witnesses will _____ in God. This most amazing miracle is so that they will believe the most amazing thing: _____ is more powerful than even the most final thing – death.

Explain: How do the following verses correspond with the reading?

1 Thessalonians 4:15, 1 Corinthians 15:55, John 14:3, John 11:25

Bible Spotlight: Joseph, thought to be dead, reveals himself to his brothers.

Before you read... Jesus is going to accomplish the impossible, and many people follow him into Jerusalem right after this miracle because they saw it or heard about it. It'll become known as Palm Sunday when many people gathered around him as he enters the city; they were ready to crown him as their earthly ruler right there – all because of the news of this incredible miracle.
